GABRIEL RESOURCES LIMITED

ANTI-BRIBERY & CORRUPTION POLICY

1 INTRODUCTION

- 1.1 The Board of Directors (“Board”) of Gabriel Resources Ltd.¹ (the “Company” or “Gabriel”) has determined that Gabriel should formalise its policy on compliance with anti-bribery and anti-corruption laws. This policy sets out Gabriel’s position on bribery and corruption (the “Policy”).

2 POLICY STATEMENT

- 2.1 Gabriel has a number of fundamental principles and values which it believes are the foundation of sound and fair business practice and as such are important to uphold. One such principle is a zero tolerance position in relation to bribery and corruption, wherever and in whatever form that it may be encountered. Gabriel is committed to conducting all of its business in an honest and ethical manner in every country where it operates, as well as complying with all applicable laws. This includes compliance with anti-bribery and anti-corruption laws such as the UK Bribery Act 2010, the US Foreign Corrupt Practices Act of 1977 and the Canadian Corruption of Foreign Public Officials Act 1999.
- 2.2 Gabriel is committed to acting professionally, fairly and with integrity in all its business dealings and relationships. It does not act in any way which might reflect adversely upon the integrity and reputation of the Company.
- 2.3 Individuals involved in corrupt activity are liable to be sentenced to imprisonment. Further, if Gabriel or any of its directors, officers, employees or associated persons (e.g. consultants, contractors or agents) is found to have taken part in corruption, Gabriel could face fines and other penalties, and it could face serious damage to its reputation, in the securities trading markets, with shareholders and with other stakeholders. Gabriel therefore takes its legal responsibilities very seriously.
- 2.4 Gabriel will uphold all laws relevant to countering bribery and corruption in each of the jurisdictions in which it operates. As the anti-corruption laws of the UK, the US and Canada have extraterritorial application, Gabriel, its employees and associated persons will be bound by the requirements of all of these laws in all jurisdictions in which we operate, even if such conduct would otherwise be permitted by the local law of a particular jurisdiction.
- 2.5 The purpose of this Policy is to:
- set out Gabriel's responsibilities, and of those working for it, in observing and upholding its position on bribery and corruption; and

¹ This Policy applies to Gabriel Resources Ltd. and all of its subsidiaries. Accordingly, this Policy will refer to Gabriel and its subsidiaries as “Gabriel”.

- provide information and guidance to those working for Gabriel on how to recognise and deal with bribery and corruption issues.

3 APPLICATION OF THE POLICY

- 3.1 The Policy applies to all directors, officers, employees, consultants and contractors of Gabriel and compliance with this Policy for each director constitutes terms of service, for each officer and employee constitutes conditions of employment and for each consultant and contractor providing substantial services constitutes conditions of providing services to Gabriel. All such persons agree to be bound by the provisions of this Policy upon engagement of their services and the most recent copy being given to them.
- 3.2 All persons covered by this Policy, in discharging their duties on behalf of Gabriel, will be required to comply with this Policy and with the laws, rules and regulations of the location in which Gabriel is performing business activities, and in particular with respect to anti-bribery and corruption laws, rules and regulations. Where uncertainty or ambiguity exists, please contact the Chief Commercial Officer (“CCO”), in the first instance on + 44 203 709 9358 or by email at acco@gabrielresources.com, who will aim to resolve the matter or may seek further legal advice.
- 3.3 In this Policy, "third party" means any individual or organisation with whom persons specified under Section 3.1 above may come into contact during the course of their work for Gabriel, and includes actual and potential customers, suppliers, distributors, business contacts, agents, advisers, and government and public bodies, including their advisors, representatives and officials, politicians and political parties.

4 FORMS OF BRIBERY AND CORRUPTION

- 4.1 For purposes of this Policy, each of the examples in Sections 4.2 to 4.5 below is referred to as a "Bribery Offence."
- 4.2 Bribes
- (a) A bribe is an inducement or reward offered, promised or provided in order to gain any commercial, contractual, regulatory or business or personal advantage.
 - (b) An inducement is something which helps to bring about an action or desired result.
 - (c) A business advantage means that Gabriel is placed in a better position (financially, economically, or reputational, or in any other way which is beneficial) than it would otherwise have been had the bribery or corruption not taken place.
- 4.3 Facilitation payments or "grease" payments are typically small, unofficial payments made to secure or expedite a routine government action by a government official (such as processing a visa, scheduling an inspection, or securing civil services).
- 4.4 Kickbacks are payment of any portion of a contract made to employees of another contracting party or the utilisation of other techniques, such as subcontracts, purchase orders or consulting agreements, to channel payment to public officials, political parties, party officials or political candidates, to employees of another contracting party, or to their relatives or business associates.
- 4.5 Extortion means to directly or indirectly demand or accept a bribe, facilitation payment or kickback.

5 ANTI-BRIBERY AND CORRUPTION STANDARDS

- 5.1 It is not acceptable for Gabriel or its directors, officers, employees, consultants or contractors to:
- (a) give, promise to give, or offer, a payment, gift or hospitality or otherwise engage in or permit a Bribery Offence to occur, with the expectation or hope that an advantage in business will be received, or to reward a business advantage already given.
 - (b) give, promise to give, or offer, a payment, gift or hospitality to a government official, agent or representative to "facilitate" or expedite a routine procedure.
 - (c) accept a payment, gift or hospitality from a third party if you know or suspect that it is offered or provided with an expectation that a business advantage will be provided by the Company in return.
 - (d) threaten or retaliate against another person who has refused to commit a Bribery Offence or who has raised concerns under this Policy or the Whistle Blowing Policy.
 - (e) engage in any activity that might lead to a breach of this Policy.

6 FACILITATION PAYMENTS

- 6.1 Gabriel does not make facilitation payments or "grease" payments of any kind. Although these are commonly paid in some jurisdictions, they are unlawful under the Canadian Corruption of Foreign Public Officials Act 1999 and UK Bribery Act 2010 and so are prohibited by Gabriel.

7 GIFTS AND HOSPITALITY

- 7.1 Gabriel recognises that gifts and hospitality can be a customary and important part of developing business relationships. However, caution must be taken in accepting or providing gifts or hospitality that could raise suggestions of impropriety or create a position of obligation on the part of the recipient.
- 7.2 This Policy sets out when it is and is not appropriate to make or receive gifts and / or hospitality from a third party.

Standards In Providing Or Accepting Gifts Or Hospitality

- 7.3 Directors, officers, employees, consultants and contractors, and their families will not give or accept gifts, gratuities or entertainment in relation to Gabriel or its business that may conflict with the provisions of this Policy. For clarity, and subject to clauses 7.4 to 7.10 of this Policy, all directors, officers, employees, consultants and contractors of Gabriel must ensure that any gift or hospitality in relation to Gabriel or its business:
- (a) is not given or accepted with the intention and/or expectation of influencing a party to obtain or retain business or a business advantage², or as a reward for the provision or retention of business or a business advantage, or in explicit or implicit exchange for favours or benefits;
 - (b) is customary to the industry;
 - (c) does not violate any local laws;
 - (d) if given, is provided in the name of the Company and not in the name of the individual;
 - (e) does not include cash or a cash equivalent (e.g. vouchers³, gifts certificates);

² A business advantage means that Gabriel is placed in a better position financially, economically, reputational or in any other beneficial way than it would otherwise have been had the gift or hospitality not been provided.

³ For the avoidance of doubt, "vouchers" does not include meal vouchers that may be redeemed in a Company canteen run for employees.

- (f) is of an appropriate type and value and given or accepted at an appropriate time, taking into account the business relationship with the counterparty, any pending action expected of the counterparty and the reason for the gifts / hospitality;
- (g) would be considered as being appropriate by an independent third party bystander in all the circumstances and in hindsight; and
- (h) is given or accepted openly and not secretly.

Gifts & Hospitality To Public Officials

- 7.4 Gabriel requires all directors, officers, employees, consultants and contractors to exercise great care when interacting with public officials and demands that they act with the highest level of integrity.
- 7.5 Prior approval must be obtained from the Managing Director of RMGC (if in Romania) or otherwise the Chief Executive Officer of Gabriel (“CEO”) for the making of any gift or the provision of any hospitality to a public official in relation to Gabriel or its business. Gifts or hospitality of an insignificant value such as promotional items (e.g. clothing, pens, notepads, diaries and calendars with the Company name on them) or refreshments offered during a meeting are not covered by this rule.

Approval For Other Gifts & Hospitality

- 7.6 Gifts or hospitality to those other than public officials should never be offered or accepted in relation to Gabriel or its business without the prior approval of the CEO where the value of the gift or the hospitality per person is more than the limits established by the CEO and notified internally, as amended from time to time. Gifts or hospitality of an insignificant value such as promotional items (e.g. clothing, pens, notepads, diaries and calendars with the Company name on them) or refreshments offered during a meeting are not covered by this rule.
- 7.7 Care should also be taken that several smaller gifts or lower levels of hospitality are not provided to, or received from, the same person thereby breaching the overall limits established by the CEO. Recovery of the reasonable cost of a gift or hospitality provided by a Gabriel director, officer or employee may be claimed in accordance with Gabriel’s expenses policies. When providing hospitality where the ultimate cost is to be borne by Gabriel, a host from Gabriel should always be in attendance at the event.
- 7.8 Where a gift is received of a value in excess of the limit established by the CEO and it would be impractical or offensive to return it (e.g. due to local customs), the Managing Director (if in Romania) or otherwise the CEO will decide whether it is appropriate to keep the gift or whether it should be donated to charity. Any decision as to a gift to the Managing Director in Romania will be made by the CEO and as to a gift to the CEO will be made by the Chair of the Board.
- 7.9 Further, there may be occasions where directors, officers, employees, consultants and contractors of Gabriel and their families are offered more generous hospitality and it will be necessary to obtain approval from the Managing Director (if in Romania), the CEO or the Chair of the Board before accepting. If acceptance of the hospitality would leave any director, officer, employee, consultant or contractor of Gabriel in a position of obligation, it should always be politely declined.

Gifts & Hospitality Register

- 7.10 All gifts and hospitality (other than gifts or hospitality of an insignificant value such as promotional items or refreshments offered during a meeting) that are provided, received or declined in relation to Gabriel or its business must be recorded in Gabriel’s Gifts Register which is maintained by the Finance Controller in Romania or elsewhere by Gabriel’s General Counsel.

- 8.1 The following is an illustrative list of “red flags” that may indicate the possible existence of corrupt practices and should be kept in mind by all those subject to this Policy:

- 9.3 If you are asked to make a payment on Gabriel’s behalf, you should always be mindful of what the payment is for and whether the amount requested is proportionate to the goods or services provided. You should always ask for a receipt which details the reason for the payment. If you have any suspicions, concerns or queries regarding a payment, you should raise these with the CCO, wherever possible, prior to taking any action.
- 9.4 All directors, officers, employees, consultants and contractors of Gabriel must notify the CCO or make a disclosure under Gabriel’s Whistle Blowing Policy (see Section 11 below) as soon as possible if they believe or suspect that an action in conflict with this Policy has occurred, or may occur in the future, or has been solicited by any person.

- 10.1 Gabriel is required to develop, implement, monitor and maintain a system of internal controls to facilitate compliance with this Policy, as well as to foster a culture of integrity and maintain high ethical standards throughout the Company.
- 10.2 Gabriel must keep financial records and have appropriate internal controls in place which will evidence the business reason for making payments to third parties.

- 10.4 All expense claims relating to hospitality, gifts or expenses incurred relating to third parties must be submitted in accordance with the relevant Gabriel policies and the reason for the expenditure specifically recorded.
- 10.5 All accounts, invoices, memoranda and other documents and records relating to dealings with third parties must be prepared and maintained with strict accuracy and completeness. No accounts or cash funds may be kept "off-book" to facilitate or conceal improper payments.

11 REPORTING VIOLATIONS OF THIS POLICY – WHISTLE BLOWING POLICY

- 11.1 All directors, officers, employees, consultants and contractors will adhere to Gabriel's commitment to conduct its business and affairs in a lawful and ethical manner. All directors, officers, employees, consultants and contractors are encouraged to raise any queries with the CCO, in the first instance on +44 203 709 9358 or by email at acco@gabrielresources.com.
- 11.2 In addition, any director, officer, employee, consultant or contractor of Gabriel who becomes aware of any instance where Gabriel receives a solicitation to engage in any act prohibited by this Policy, or who becomes aware of any information suggesting that a violation of this Policy has occurred or is about to occur, is required to report it to the CCO.
- 11.3 Persons who refuse to engage in or permit a Bribery Offence, or who raise legal or ethical concerns or report another's wrongdoing, are sometimes concerned about possible repercussions. Gabriel aims to encourage openness and will support persons who raise genuine concerns in good faith under this Policy, even if they turn out to be mistaken. No directors, officers, employees, consultants or contractors of Gabriel will suffer demotion, penalty, or other adverse consequences for refusing to engage in or permit a Bribery Offence or for raising concerns in good faith or for reporting possible wrongdoing, even if it may result in the Company losing business or otherwise suffering a disadvantage.
- 11.4 Gabriel has also adopted a Whistle Blowing Policy which provides procedures for reporting violations of laws, rules, regulations or Gabriel's corporate policies. A copy of the Whistle Blowing Policy can be found on Gabriel's website at www.gabrielresources.com.

The investigation will document all relevant facts, including persons involved, times and dates. At his discretion, the CEO or the Chair of the Audit Committee may advise the Board of the existence of an investigation.
- (c) The identity of a person filing a report will be treated as confidential to the extent possible, and only revealed on a need-to-know basis or as required by law or court order.
